

1st Annual Conference of Infections in Critical Care: Intensivist Perspective

by Adult Critical Care Chapter – SCCS 2021

September 13-14, 2021

Sponsorship Letter

Recipient:

Dear Sir/Maám,

The Adult Critical Care Chapter of the Saudi Critical Care Society will be holding the 1st Conference of Infections in Critical Care, which will be on September 13-14, 2021.

In this forum, international and national experts will be joining in exchanging knowledge, research, growing updates in the complex field of infectious diseases in the critically ill population. We aim to reach the practitioners in both critical care and infectious diseases specialties via the virtual forum beyond the limitation of the physical attendance locally and internationally.

This event, taking place in the international Sepsis week, is one of the best opportunities for the companies to promote their products through the Virtual platform of their Logos and present evidence-based lectures by well-known experts.

Kindly find the sponsorship package list and privileges according to the level of category, which you can take part:
